

ST. MIKE'S

THE CAMPUS

More than steel and stone, these buildings . . .
haven of knowledge,
refuge of minds,
seeking truth.

A setting where the soul
may wander . . .
in the wonder
of its creator.

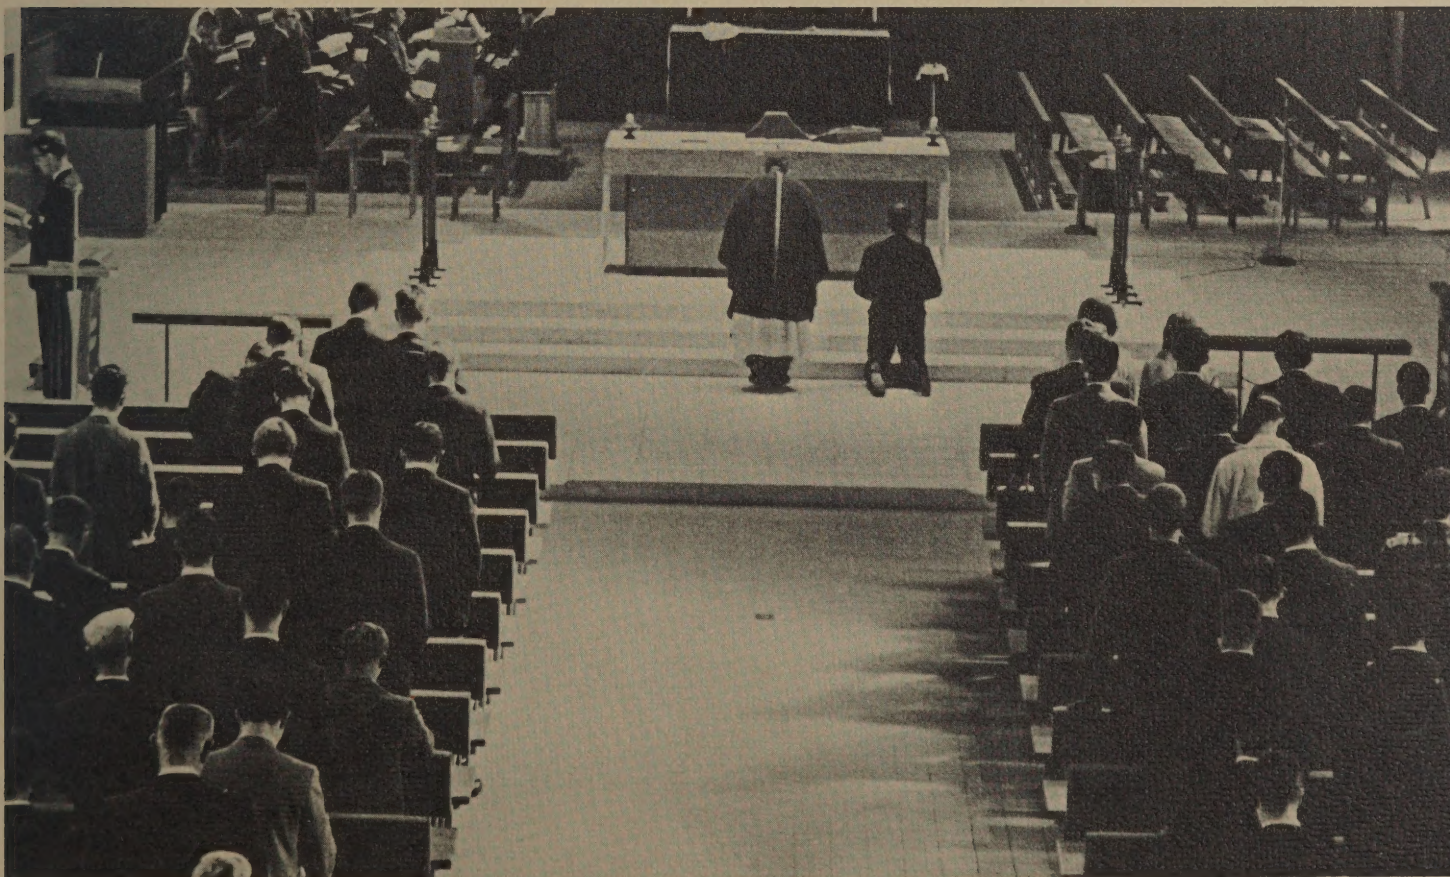

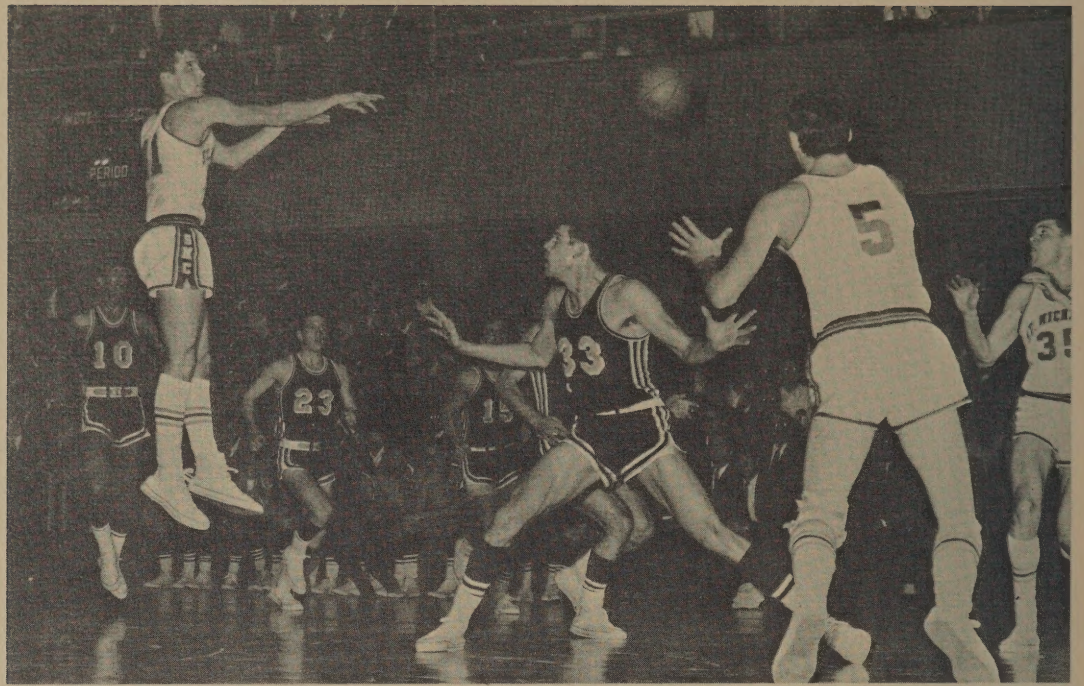

THE PEOPLE

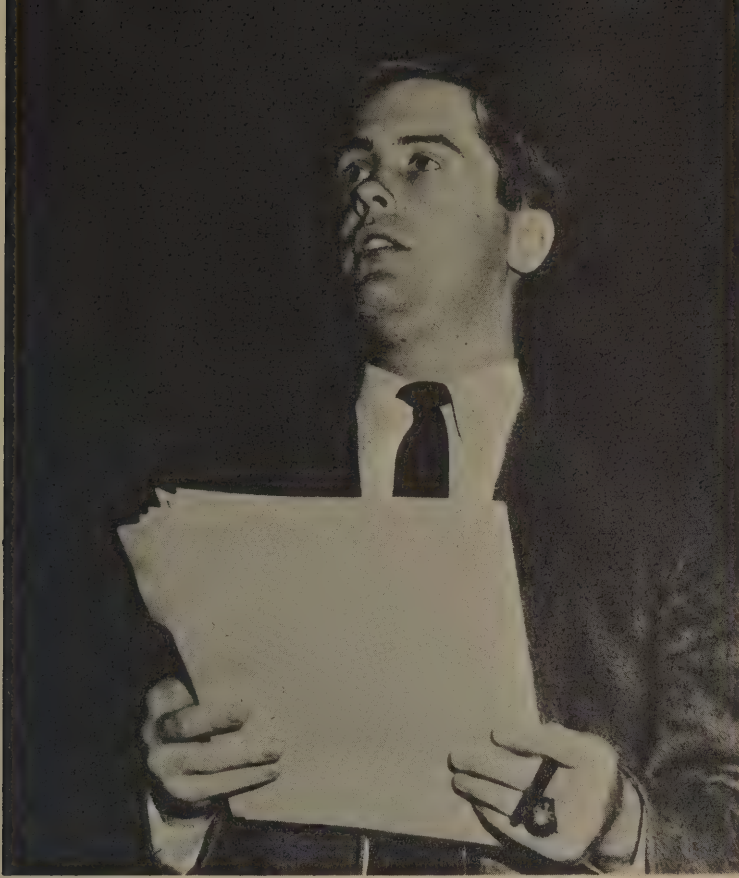

Men seeking knowledge,
 finding it . . .
 wrapped in friendship.
 Active minds
 discovering ideas
 in the inspiration of a friend.
 Casual conversation developing into flaming thought.

THE ACTIVITIES

Exercising the mind and body . . .
Sharpening their keen edge,
Discovering the sense of accomplishment
in things well done.
The soreness of exertion
soon soothed by the pride of victory.

In the gaiety of light moments,
foam and friendship,
one finds . . .
A quiet reassurance
in the knowledge that no man need feel he is alone.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

THE LEARNING

Man discovering himself
among ancient thoughts, fortifying himself
with knowledge . . .
Building his confidence,
his capabilities . . .
To contribute,
in his own way,
to the world that is his.

THE TRADITION

There is an inner pleasure in knowing that some things
never change.
Places we go . . .
Things we do . . .
lying in circular paths that cross
again and again.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

SMC

Expressing the needs and desires of the student body at St. Michael's is the Student Forum. With the advent of the house system this year and their representation in this body, the Forum has grown to fifty-nine members. These elected or club-appointed representatives form a liaison, a responsible and respected unit of action and communication, between college administration and students.

From the concerted wishes of the student body, the Forum has been able to achieve a rescheduling of dining hours and the "quick line" in the cafeteria. Even more importantly, a choice of meals now is offered for lunch and dinner. Such small conveniences as now implemented in the washrooms, also began as motions in this body.

This year the Forum has conducted several polls to accurately determine student opinion on matters and present this information to the administration. Through this effort a guidance system will be initiated, and plans for improving the book store have already begun.

Yet the Forum is not merely the mouthpiece of student ideas and opinion. For besides sponsoring the Awards Banquets, Winter Weekend, and Interclass activities and athletics, it also supports club activities through financial aid. Furthermore, this body is assisting in the formation of several scholarships for Michaelmen.

Under the guidance of Dr. Cleveland A. Williams and the leadership of Mr. Arnold Oliver, and through much work done in committees, student government on campus has become a dynamic force and not simply a formality.

HONOR SOCIETIES

SMC

Alpha Epsilon Delta is an international honor society which is reserved for concentrators in the area of Pre-Medical Studies. The main function of the organization is to publicly recognize and encourage outstanding scholastic achievement among pre-medical and pre-dental students. The society affords the opportunity to develop the leadership, initiative, and general personality traits necessary for success in the professional world.

To be eligible for membership, an individual must have completed at least three semesters of pre-medical work and maintained an outstanding general average. Candidates are considered for admission by criteria based on character, citizenship, and extracurricular interests. Because of the stringent requirements to A.E.D., membership is granted on a lifetime basis.

The Alpha chapter, awarded to St. Michael's College in 1960, was the first appearance of this organization in the state of Vermont.

Each year the group works in conjunction with the Pre-Medical Society to co-sponsor lectures, movies, and meetings in which members are given the opportunity to learn more about their future profession.

Phi Eta Sigma Fraternity is a unique organization in the fact that its membership is accepted purely on the basis of scholastic achievement. While other societies place an emphasis upon social and extracurricular activities to confer their honorary fraternity, P.E.S. recognizes the scholar.

In order to win admission to this elite, a student must maintain a general average of 90% during his freshman year. This feat must be accomplished with the added achievement of having no grade below a "B".

Phi Eta Sigma brings these talented men together on a common ground so that they can benefit one another as well as find companionship among those of kindred interests and abilities. The society affords the exceptional student with the occasion to fraternize with underclassmen of similar attitudes and advance themselves through informal discussion.

Founded over 40 years ago at a midwestern university, the fraternity was established to advance a higher standard of learning and scholarship among college freshmen, and since its introduction at St. Michael's College the numbers of men inducted have proved its worth.

DELTA Δ EPSILON E SIGMA Σ

Delta Epsilon Sigma, a national scholastic honor society established in 1939 for students, faculty, and alumni of Catholic colleges and universities, was brought to St. Michael's College by Reverend E. J. Hamel and the late Drs. Quinlin, and Durick, charter members of the organization.

Each year a number of promising scholars from the student body are inducted into the Alpha Nu Chapter of the college. In order to win admission, the student must distinguish himself in his academic endeavors as well as exemplify good moral character. To qualify, the student must have at least an 85 cumulative average or be a "Cum laude" graduate of an accredited college or university.

The organization provides an informal atmosphere in which students and professors may indulge in an exchange of ideas and profitable criticism.

Delta Epsilon Sigma recognizes and rewards scholastic achievement and awards a distinction for the endeavors of its members. It remains a goal for aspiring underclassmen.

This year twenty members of the Senior Class were elected by their classmates to represent St. Michael's College in Who's Who. Their selection was based on the student's scholarship, his participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, and his promise of future success.

The publication of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities was established in 1934 to create a national basis of recognition for college students. Each member elected to the publication is awarded a certificate of recognition awarded by the national organization, recognition in the annual publication for the year he was selected, and the benefit of a student placement service operated by the publication.

The organization is designed not only as a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement, but as a goal to inspire greater effort and a higher standard of excellence in all students.

CROWN AND SWORD SOCIETY

The semi-annual Crown and Sword Scholarship Dances are the most popular on campus.

In 1957 at St. Michael's the Crown and Sword Honorary Society was founded "to assist the Administration in any way possible." This year the Society marked its 10th anniversary with continued service to the college and community.

Members of the Society serve as ushers for all religious, social, and athletic events. They act as guides for campus visitors and serve as hosts to college guests. The Society coordinates the "Big Brother" Program during Freshman Week and helps with the arrangements for Parents' Weekend. In the community the members often help out at local children's homes and serve as ushers for the Vermont T.B. and Health Association concerts. Each year the Society sponsors two dances which benefit their scholarship fund to provide $500 for a worthy Vermonter.

The membership is comprised of 15 seniors and 15 juniors plus the Student Forum President. To become a member a student must be judged as exceptional by the body. He must be in good academic standing and possess a good record of school and class service.

The Crown and Sword Honorary Society is considered to be one of the most distinguished organizations in this area.

PLEDGES to the Arnold Air Society this year included; A. Ingrasano, H. Boucher, G. Archambault, M. Foley, R. Limoges, J. Ferraris, and P. Lewinski.

The Chaplain John Verret Squadron of The Arnold Air Society is part of a national honorary society for outstanding Air Force R.O.T.C. cadets. Pledges to this organization are accepted on the basis of character, leadership, civic responsibility and active contributions to the R.O.T.C. program. The St. Michael's chapter has expanded its objectives and is vigorously involved in many civic and community projects.

They have worked to lighten the hearts of the children at local orphanages, collected for the Heart Fund, and conducted a program to encourage more people to get out and vote. Each Spring they sponsor an Air Force day at the local high schools to inform students about the various ways of fulfilling their military obligation. The Squadron has served as honor guards and ushers at important public functions on the campus. They sponsor the Military Ball of Winter Weekend and the formal dining-in for the Advanced Corps Cadets in the Spring. Since the R.O.T.C. program has become voluntary, the Arnold Air has established a recruiting office on campus during Freshman Week.

The activities of this group are kept vibrant by the sincere dedication of its members and the new programs which are introduced by each incoming pledge class.

Cadet Lieutenant Harold Daigle shows the Maine hospitality as he speaks with an attractive guest from UVM.

SMC

OFFICERS: R. Crane, K. Wursthorn, J. Saavedra, W. Mancini.

The Chemistry Society was established with the intent of promoting the chemist's vocation by instilling in students a desire to seek out facts through scientific knowledge and methods.

Supplementing the extensive chemistry curriculum, the Chemistry Club presents its members with invaluable information and experience which ranges from lectures, field trips, and movies, to complicated chemical problems. Equipped with this knowledge, many young men have found encouragement to continue their empirical studies.

In order to familiarize others with the wonderment and complexities of science, the Chemistry Society, along with the Pre-Medical Society, sponsors an annual science night. High School students come from the surrounding area in large numbers to witness the demonstrations and experiments conducted by these clubs.

The Pre-Medical Society, founded in 1939 as the Biology Club, fosters an interest in the field of medicine, dentistry, and related fields of biology.

The most noteworthy activities have been the semi-annual blood drive netting about 750 pints, and the field trip to the McGill University Medical School.

In 1958 a library containing information on medical, dental, and graduate schools was started and is still maintained. It aids members in the selection of schools and in the preparation for entrance examinations.

Group discussions among the members, biology majors, and the faculty of the biology department have helped to shed some light on the biological field and what it holds in store for the person studying in biology.

After a gradual and uneventful beginning in 1964, the Thomistic Society this year enjoyed an increased enrollment. The increased membership is a good sign; for it includes men from departments other than Philosophy, indicating a growing interest in this subject.

Contributing to the increased interest in the society were the appearance of Dr. Lynch of Saint Michael's College, University of Toronto, who presented a lecture entitled "Place of Catholic Education in America" and with a discussion with Saint Joseph's of the Provider College on "Is There a Philosophy of Catholic College Education."

Through periodic discussions and lectures the Philosophy Club provides the student with an opportunity to carry on informal discussions and to broaden his scope in all aspects of life.

THE THOMISTS

Larry Anthony and Mr. Milton Smith conduct a club discussion.

The Modern Language Club was originally organized to aid the concentrators in modern language to develop a broader understanding of foreign cultures. Because of its immediate success, it extended membership to any student taking a foreign language. Membership is now open to all interested and responsible students who will give of themselves in order to gain a better cultural understanding of their cultural brothers.

The club's first activity was the sponsorship of a foreign film festival. This show was greeted with such wide approval that it has become an annual event on campus. The Club extended its activities by sponsoring films, lectures, and displays on foreign relationships and culture.

This year the Club sponsored a trip to Le College de Montréal, attended lectures at La Maison Française at the University of Vermont, and innovated a tutorial service for students who needed help in mastering a foreign language. The Club also raised money for foreign language books for the new library, and plans to create an entire foreign language section.

The success story of this organization is due to the untiring efforts of a few men interested in international brotherhood.

ELIZABETH CITY TUTORIAL PROJECT

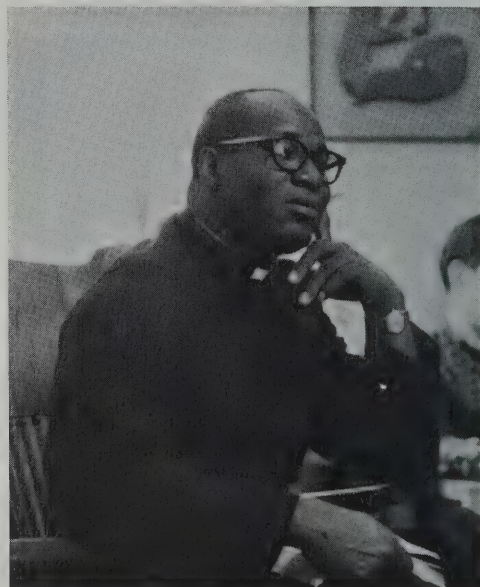

Last summer, five St. Michael's students with Father Moses B. Anderson conducted a tutorial program in Elizabeth City, North Carolina. For six weeks they tutored fifty high school students selected on a non-sectarian, non-racial basis from four surrounding counties. These students possessed the intellectual capabilities of attending college. The tutorial program strived to enrich their studies in English and mathematics to enhance the opportunities of more successful college careers. The program further fostered inter-human living between students and instructors, and provided teaching practice for the instructors.

After two successful, useful programs, Father Anderson has received support from the college and its students as well as from Elizabeth City for a similar program this summer. With continued, and with increased support an expanded program is anticipated.

Fr. Moses Anderson founded the project.

The ECTP again sponsored its annual Hootenanny to benefit the program.

ENGLISH FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

The English for Foreign Students Program was initiated at St. Michael's in 1954 and has been under the direction of Professor Ernest Boulay since that time. More than three thousand students from foreign countries have studied with the department.

The purpose of the program is to help students develop a practical knowledge of English and of American culture. It is a concentrated course which helps to meet the needs of students whose goal is to gain fluency in spoken and written English.

The St. Michael's approach is the result of years of teaching and observation here and abroad by the department personnel. Vocabulary and pronunciation are of prime importance. One of the most valuable ways these special students increase their knowledge of English and American life is through constant contact with regular St. Michael's students.

THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON FORMATION is a familiar sight on the hilltop campus.

5-B-X isn't as easy as it looks.

The Air Force R.O.T.C. program at St. Michael's was established in 1951 in order to train and prepare selected college men for commissions as Second Lieutenants.

Now under the leadership of Lt. Colonel Charles Ruggiero Jr., Professor of Aerospace Studies, and Commandant of cadets, the corps numbers 160 in both the Professional Officers and the General Military Course.

This year has seen a new approach toward conducting the weekly corps training sessions which has proved advantageous to all concerned. Also this year the cadets have had an opportunity to make an orientation flight to the Air Museum at Wright-Patterson A.F.B. in Ohio. The underclassmen observed the weekly Group Staff meetings in order to become acquainted with the procedures involved in organizing the group. The group also saw the birth of The Knight Pilot, a newsletter of information for the Cadet Corps.

Among the Corps' responsibilities are conducting a formal military dining-in, co-sponsoring Winter Weekend, the semi-annual blood drive, and conducting Final Review for Parent's Weekend.

THE MILITARY MASS at the beginning of the Academic year is an integral part of the R.O.T.C. program at St. Michael's.

DEBATE CLUB

"Should the United States Reduce Its Foreign Policy Commitments?"

Affirmative—Negative.

Father James Ryan coached the Debating Club on this topic chosen by the National Forensic League. The annual Debating League Conference, at the University of Hartford, served as an impetus to Father Ryan to form a more active Debating Team at St. Michael's. He coached the members in the collection and preparation of material appropriate for the topic, and in rhetoric and the dynamics of speech.

Several teams competed at the National State Debating Tournament, at the University of Vermont. Later, one team, Jack Bacco and Robert Meade, debated at the Columbia International Debate Tournament, and at the Spring Forensic League Debate, at New York University.

The team members appreciated these opportunities to represent St. Michael's among fine competition. They realized the work necessary to compete on grand scale debating, and enjoyed performing one of man's greatest and most important arts—the art of persuasion through speech.

In the spring of 1966 a small group of Michaelmen gathered to form the St. Michael's College Football Club. Their aim was to raise enough money to field a fully equipped football team for intercollegiate play, the first on the hilltop in 13 years.

The idea of Club Football has spread rapidly throughout the country in the last few years. It is truly football as it should be. No scholarships are awarded to give it the touch of "big time" college ball. Many of the expenses are borne by the players themselves. Participation is for the love of the game, not for the rewards. The club is operated exclusively by the students who assume the responsibility for the financial support of the team.

The club has just completed its first year of existence. The team (see pages 134-139) compiled an impressive 2-1 record against teams that have been in existence for a couple of years. It is now a leading organization on campus and will continue to be so as long as it is given the full support and cooperation of the student body.

In November of 1964, a group of interested students who held an appreciation for creative music formed the St. Michael's College Jazz Club. The club was small at first, but after succeeding in promoting the interests of fellow students, the organization began a formal schedule of activities.

Listening hours and the discussion groups which followed under the leadership of Father Moses Anderson proved interesting and informative. Since these sessions were held open to the general student body, and attendance was growing, guest lecturers were invited to speak on the various aspects of jazz music. These lectures afforded students the opportunity of discussing their interests with experts in the field.

Practical application of the knowledge which they acquired was put to use in the instrumental workshops in which students got together and formed musical groups, playing together and increasing their instrumental proficiency.

CHESS CLUB

The 1966-67 academic year marked the second anniversary of the Chess Club. The young club is comprised of members who enjoy playing and those who wish to learn to play chess. The club also sponsors an inter-collegiate chess team. Although the team is hampered by a lack of funds they have managed to travel to Johnson State College, Plattsburg State College, and Norwich University. The team members made a fine showing at the Johnson State match by defeating that team through the heads-up play of the St. Michael's members.

The Young Democrats of Saint Michael's was founded in 1960 when John Fitzgerald Kennedy was a Presidential candidate. Since that time the club has worked closely with the Democratic Party in Vermont.

The Club's principal activity this past year was its effective role in Governor Hoff's re-election campaign.

The organization seeks to provide its members with an outlet for their political views and to provide them with a human insight into the actual workings of the political process.

Through the club's activities its members are able to meet and talk with local, state, and national political figures, as well as gain first hand observation of election procedures.

The Young Republican Club was organized on campus in 1964 for the purpose of furthering the ideals of the Republican Party and familiarizing the college community with the workings of the party.

This year much of the club's time was spent in working for the Republican candidate for Governor of Vermont, Richard A. Snelling of Shelburne.

In addition to aiding local Republican activities, the club conducts regular round table discussion periods among members of the Republican Club and also with the Young Democrat Club.

The club also gives its members the opportunity to discuss politics with the various political candidates, local, state, and national.

The club spent much time in helping Richard Snelling with his gubernatorial campaign.

The heads of the various student publications decided, this year, that they could all benefit from a common exchange of ideas on layout, style, photography, and approach. They formed the Editors' Forum, a society of editors drawn from "The Michaelman," "The Shield," and "The Quest."

The organization has helped to improve the quality of student publications by giving the boards of editors a better perspective of their own publications on campus. The club has helped to co-ordinate coverage of campus life and has tried to make the newspaper, the yearbook and the literary magazine the best of each genre.

The club has no formal organization but is headed by a co-ordinating committee dedicated to the ideals of intellectual exchange. The society is limited in membership to editors and staff members of the various publications. It may be called exclusive because of its limited membership, but it also is a service organization because its end product is the improvement of student publishing on campus.

By engendering an interest in political problems and civic activities, the club better equips its members to understand the world situation as it exists today.

The club also invites various speakers, such as lawyers, state officials, and other men in government, to lecture to the members on graduate school, law school, and their roles as leaders in the community.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Since its introduction to Saint Michael's College in November 1959, the Father John Verret Council of the Knights of Columbus has realized an impressive variety of objectives.

Actively functioning through the common bonds of Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism, Council #4870 has pledged its support to brother councils and other Catholic action groups for the benefit of the surrounding community. The T.B. Association, The Muscular Dystrophy Campaign, and the Saint Joseph's Orphanage are among the groups which receive active participation and assistance from the Father John Verret Council.

The highlight of this year's activities was the hosting of the state convention on May 27-29, marking the first time a college council has ever sponsored a state convention.

Bishop Joyce and State Chaplain Father Duford address the convention at the banquet.

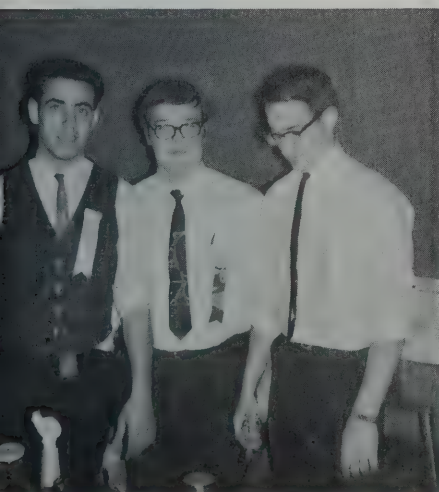

State Convention chairmen Bill Stafford, Bob Minetti, and Bart Federici are pictured here with Judge Harold J. Lamboley, K of C Supreme Advocate and guest speaker at the banquet.

The Catholic Men's Club at St. Michael's College was organized in 1962 under the name of the Holy Name Society. It was formed in order to promote an active Christian spirit on campus and to prepare the college student for an active layman's life in the modern Church.

The club, which now numbers more than 250 students, is guided by the spirit of the modern Church and is dedicated to a reverence of the name of Jesus. The club is fortunate in having the Rev. Nelson B. Ziter as its moderator for his work and interest in it are boundless.

To further its dedication to the Christian spirit, the club has engaged in many social and charitable works in the Burlington area. Members have worked at the local Boy's Club, tutored for special students in the public school system and have worked for the Vermont Social Welfare Agency. This year also saw the start of a new program in which various members or the club visited the local hospitals to entertain patients.

The Saint Michael's Choir is such an active organization that it may either be called a service club or our unofficial goodwill ambassadors. They provide artistic and liturgical programs on campus for special events and have travelled widely, spreading the good name of Saint Michael's College throughout the Northeast Country.

In addition to the regular Sunday and Holy Day religious offerings, the Choir has taken part this year in the Workshop of the American Guild of Artists held at Saint Michael's College, has sung at a televised mass at WCAX studios in Burlington and held a special concert for students to acquaint everyone with the wide panorama of Choir music.

All of the members of this group are past members of the Glee Club and are picked for their special vocal technique and harmony. Under the direction of Dr. William Tortolano, the Choir continues to be one of our best sources of publicity and acclaim.

Dr. Tortolano conducts the group at a practice.

The Choir provides the music at the 11 O'clock Mass on Sundays.

Despite long arduous hours of practice followed by the distant and tiring trips by bus, the St. Michael's College Glee Club adds to all its performances a zest and love for all its music. Besides promoting an appreciation of quality music therefore, the club further enhances the name the college has been acquiring among choral groups. Illustrating this is the fact that the St. Michael's College Glee Club is only the second Catholic vocal group which has sung on the Smith College campus.

Under the direction of Dr. William Tortolano, the glee club this past year has traveled to and sung with Emmanuel, Our Lady of the Elms, Regis, Smith, and Marymount Colleges.

Performing with Emmanuel College and the Boston Civic Symphony Orchestra at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, the glee club presented "A German Requiem" by Johannes Brahms. This concert, held in November, was a special memorial tribute to John F. Kennedy.

At Tarrytown New York, the glee clubs of St. Michael's and Marymount Colleges presented "The Bells" by Rachmaninoff and excerpts from the opera "Boris Gudunov". It was only the second presentation in this country of "The Bells", a Russian choral work banned in that country for its "bourgeoisie" affectations.

Several women's colleges sang on campus this year, but as in past years, the highlight was the Christmas Concert with the Trinity College Glee Club. The "Messe de Minuit" (Midnight Mass) of Charpentier was presented. This performance, which combined the greatest aspects of a concert and a religious service, was held in the College Chapel of St. Michael the Archangel.

The year has seen a great deal of distinction added to the club's name and it has served well as an ambassador of the college.

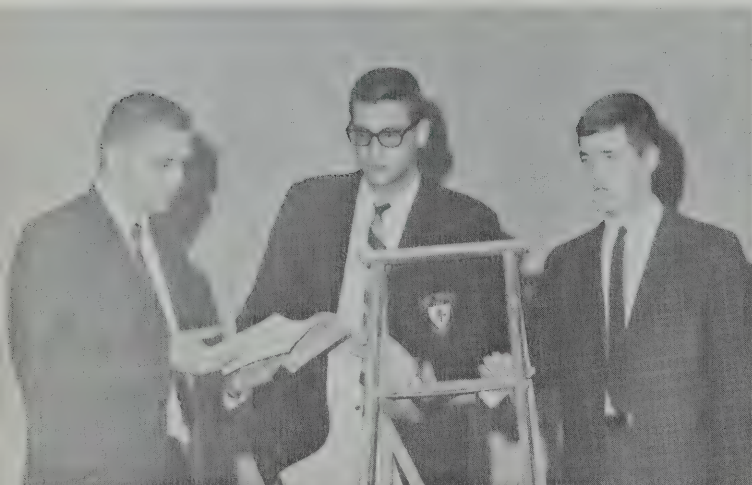

It takes many hours of concentrated practice to produce excellent performances.

Many members can be found relaxing at parties after the concerts.

THE BIRDS

In its fifth year on campus, the Drama Club continued to provide worthwhile entertainment for the students of the college and the people of neighboring towns. In its five years of existence, the club has presented two musicals, two Shakespearean comedies, a number of contemporary dramas and two platform readings.

Aristophanes' The Birds was the fall production presented in mid-November. The play is a Greek comedy and the Walter Kerr adaptation retains much of the gaiety of the early Greek brand of comedy. Some club members aided in the making of costumes and benefited from the experience by learning much about costume design.

In mid-April, the Drama Club once again took to the boards and presented John Osborne's Luther. The contemporary play, winner of a "Tony" Award and the Drama Critics' Award for the best play in 1964, relates the story of Martin Luther and his break with the Church. The difficult play was well-received and Mr. and Mrs. Rathgeb chalked-up another success to a growing list of many.

Late April saw the advent of the second annual platform reading. The club did a very commendable job of handling the colorful poetry of Christopher Fry's The Lady's Not for Burning, a delight comedy in verse. In addition to these three productions, the club awarded its annual apprentice scholarship to a student which enables him to work with professional actors during the summer months.

QUEST EDITORS. E. Fitzgerald, R. Ossa, S. Fabian.

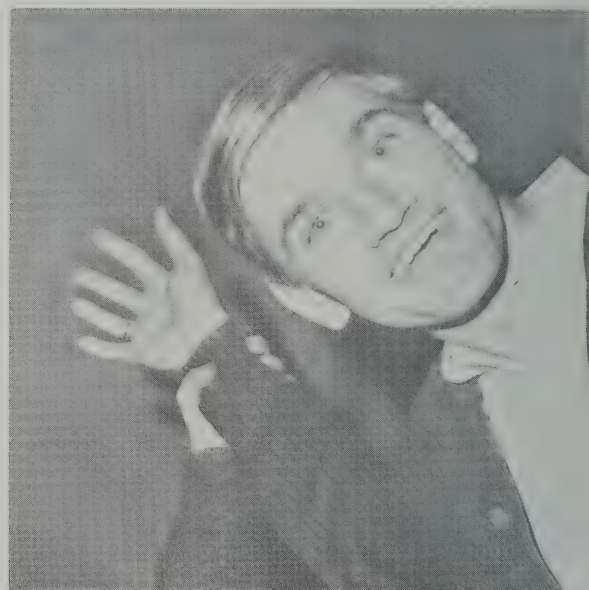

The St. Michael's College "avant-garde" literary publication known as the QUEST was first published in 1960. It was organized in order to fill the void when an earlier publication, THE LANCE, was discontinued.

Since its first year, the QUEST has received a steady influx of material from the student body. Contributions have included prize-winning poetry, short stories, reviews, and in-depth criticisms. Faculty contributions are limited to poetry. This year the QUEST initiated an excellent photography section.

One of the features of the magazine is the sole responsibility of the editorial staff for its content. The QUEST thus represents a credit to the artistic maturity of the students at the college. Each in-coming editorial staff is selected and screened by its predecessor on the basis of critical and creative achievement in intellectual endeavor.

THE MICHAELMAN

Even under extreme pressures our esteemed editor managed to keep his composure.

The St. Michael's College weekly (?), known as The Michaelman, has served for nineteen years as a sounding board of student opinion. Its many stories, editorials, and "Letters to the Editor" have presented excellent coverage of on campus events and student life. "The Observer" has also served as an adequate journalistic channel for student interest in the college's activities and policies.

Features on the new Football Club and team, our Number 1 Basketball team, the new House system, and curriculum changes have been among the outstanding news stories covered this year.

The Michaelman holds its portals open to anyone who wishes to use it. The opinion of any one man is worthwhile if it concerns the general welfare of the rest. Controversy and criticism are raised, of course, but only in a constructive vein.

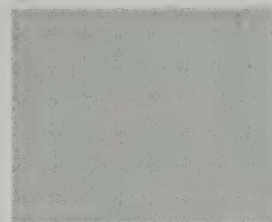

In addition to the editors, who are responsible for the coordination of the paper's activities, credit must be extended to the staff reporters and the "Thursday night crew" who work hard to get the paper in print.

The past year has seen many changes at St. Michael's. It has been The Michaelman which has kept the students, faculty, and administration afloat on the changing tide. The staff reporters and editors have done an excellent job in writing and publishing a paper of which the college can be proud.

No dear, I'm not at the Mill.

'67 SHIELD

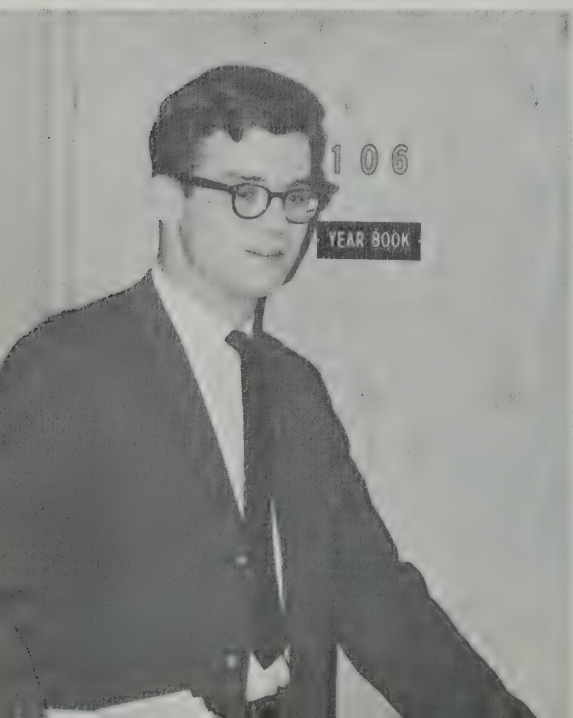

The 1967 SHIELD, through the theme "This is St. Michael's," has tried, through pictures, to capture the college as it really is.

A yearbook cannot cover all of a school's activities, but through the theme and the largest book ever published at St. Michael's we hope to have covered a good portion of life on the hilltop.

The larger book enabled us to expand the Organizations, Activities, and Sports sections, as well as making it possible to include more candid. The decision to include new and candid pictures of the faculty and the administration also helps to portray St. Michael's College as it really is.

We feel that we have created a most interesting edition and we sincerely hope that you enjoy it.

ACTIVITIES

SMC

Each year there are many on-campus events which deserve a special place of recognition; that is why we have included in the '67 SHIELD a separate section for these functions. Falling into this category are the religious, cultural, dramatic, and social activities of the academic year.

Among the most prominent and important events this year are the Glee Club concerts, art shows, the excellent speakers on traditional and controversial subjects, and the Drama Club production's of "The Birds" and "Luther."

In a book of this size, which can dedicate only a few pages to these worthwhile subjects, we can only hope that these pictures will serve as a reminder of the fine quality of St. Michael's events.

KNIGHT LIFE

SMC

Here's our "remember when" section. Freshman year saw an enjoyable picnic in New York. How that has all changed!! We don't get to New York as often, but the picnics continue—on campus, in the dorm and in Burlington. When the studying is done (when did it begin?) the Michaelmen certainly know how to relax.

Remember our first three years?

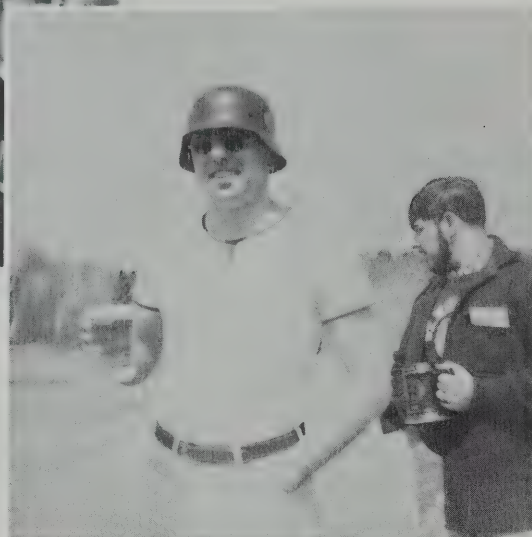

This is the SPIRIT OF '67!

Up with the crack of dawn, everybody was soon into the spirits of the day.

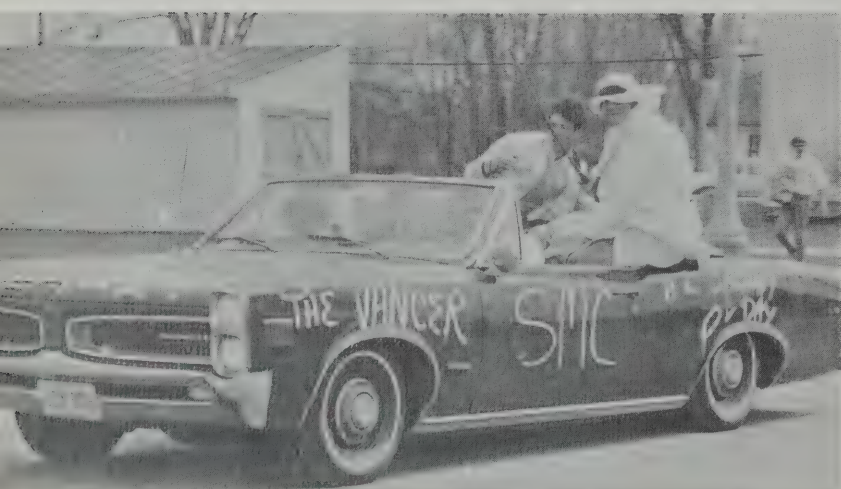

P-DAY '66

P-Day is traditionally the wildest and most fun-filled event of the year at St. Michael's. It is a prelude to Junior Weekend, an event to Publicize and Promote the biggest social event of the year.

Many Michaelmen were seen parading around campus dressed like Arab tribesmen as they joined in the day's festivities. The costumes designed from bathrobes and towels gave the impression that the oasis of AL JAHARA was actually on the hilltop.

THERE WAS NO LACK OF ACTIVITY ON CAMPUS AS THE JUNIORS BEGAN THEIR PARADE TO THE HILLTOP FROM THE BURLINGTON WATERFRONT.

JUNIOR WEEKEND 1966

AL JAHARA

The feast of Al Jahara draws its name from the largest and most verdant oasis in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia. Kuwait, as the victor, has every year since held great fairs and celebrations at this oasis in thanks and elation for the greatest victory. This festival lasts three days and is divided into three distinct sections to designate the various aspects of the feast.

AL SAMMRA

The first night of the feast (Friday as we know it) is entitled the Sammra. This segment of the triad festival is concerned with the assembly of all the celebrants for dancing and entertainment which last the entire night. The Sammra is usually held in a large colorful tent where the guests are invited to partake of any and all refreshments which are present.

AL KASHTA

The second day is termed Kashta which means a "trip". In truth it is a trip with a group of festival-minded people who leave the city in carts laden with food and drink, the destination of which is the oasis of Al Jahara. Here the dancing and entertainment will last all day.

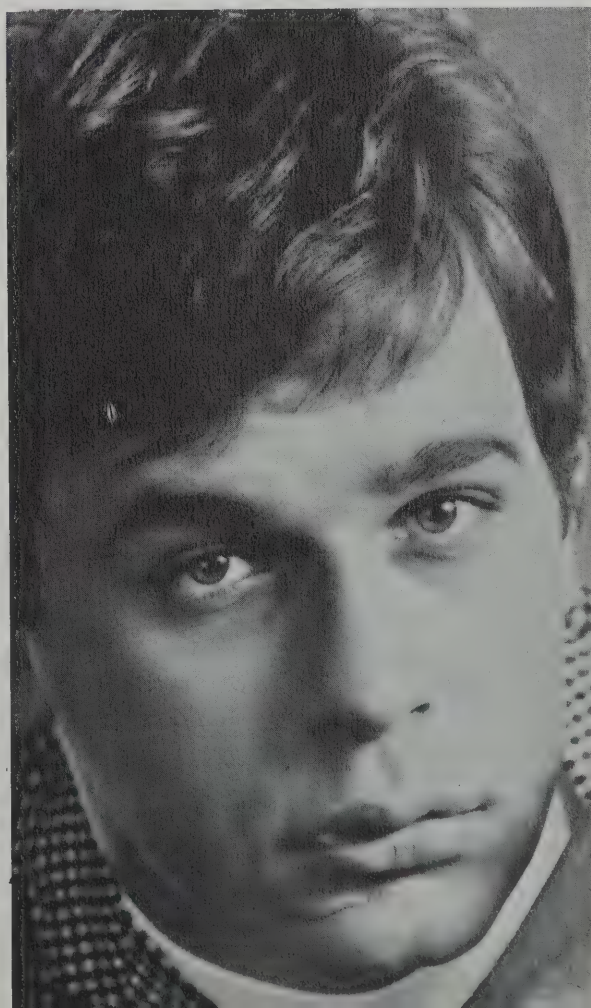

AL DEWANEYA

Finally, Saturday night is known as Dwaneya which represents a gathering of all the celebrants in a private tent where the host provides entertainment for all his guests.

Dwaneya brought to a close the most successful Junior Weekend ever at St. Michael's. The Ronettes, Mary Wells, Lou Christie, and The Last Words offered plenty of top flight entertainment. It will be a long time before the ball, the picnic, the concerts, and the numerous parties are forgotten.

The weekend co-chairmen, Henri Couture and John Byrne, are to be congratulated, for it was only through their hard work that the success of Al Jahara was made possible.

WINTER WEEKEND '67

Winter Weekend '67 was the most successful Weekend of its type ever held at St. Michael's. This was due entirely to the hard work and excellent planning of Mike Mahoney, Weekend Chairman and Junior Class Vice-President.

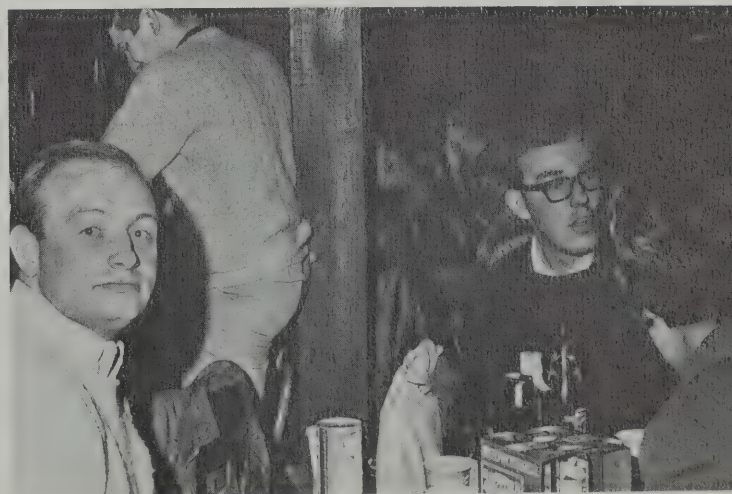

Friday night a semi-formal Ball, co-sponsored by the Student Forum and R.O.T.C., officially opened the festivities.

Saturday's activities were highlighted by the great performance of the "TYMES" at the Town and Country Inn at Stowe.

It will be a long while before the great "TYMES" of the weekend are forgotten.

The 1966 Soccer Season opened with two impressive victories for the Knights. The initial contest of the season saw the Plattsburg squad fall to a 4-1 defeat. The powerful Knights followed with a decisive 5-2 defeat of the Castleton contingent. The team reasserted itself, after dropping two and tying one, with a 1-0 upset over St. Lawrence and an impressive showing against Yankee Conference Champion, University of Vermont.

Coach Jaremczuk had no trouble steering this well balanced squad to a winning season. The balance of power lay in our three All-State selections, Shay, Pentkowski and Ratti. However, Knight supporters can easily attest that it was the scoring and excellent playing of all members of this fine team that brought the club to an impressive 6-3-1 season.

Next year the Knights will be losing the services of seven seniors. These seven men were invaluable to the team and the season, accounting for 13 points and five assists. The Juniors and Sophs should be able to fill these voids. It won't be an easy task for Coach Jaremczuk to replace the graduates, but if he continues to exhibit his deft coaching, he should enjoy many more successful seasons at The Hilltop.

Jon Ratti shows All-State form as he out-maneuvers opponent to control the ball.

The dream of reviving intercollegiate football on The Hilltop was brought into reality in 1966. Through the untiring efforts of a few dedicated men, the entire school rallied in spirit and in aid to put a team on the field. Despite the loss of time and money on the part of each player, the team was satisfied in the knowledge that they could play the game.

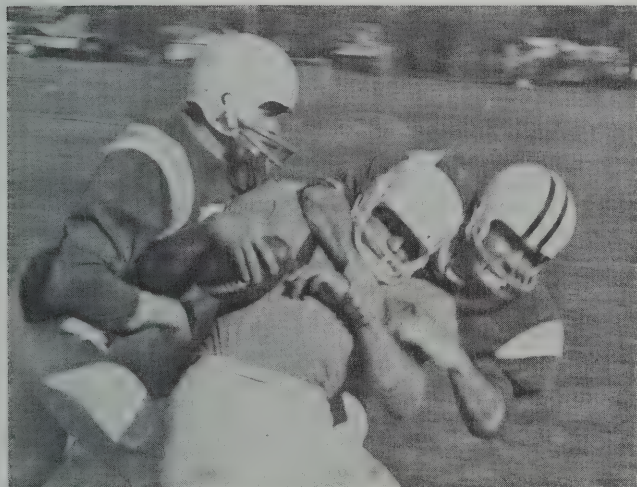

Coach Art Coggio only had three weeks to whip the team into shape for their first game, but the Knights compiled a surprising 2 and 1 record.

The club travelled to New York to meet Utica College in their initial contest. The Knights came away victorious by a 6-0 score. The game illustrated the strong defensive power of the squad. They met their next opponent, St. John's University, a week later in New York City. The Michaelmen were underdogs, but they humbled the Redmen by a 14-0 score in front of a large St. John's crowd. The well-moving St. Michael's offense overpowered the favorites throughout the game, but again defense held the key to victory by coming up with four decisive interceptions in the waning moments of the game. Three weeks later, the Knights were in Albany to meet Siena College. A bigger Siena Club ended all hopes for an unblemished record. Bad breaks for the St. Michael's Club set the Siena eleven up for two T.D.'s, and the Knights came out on the short side of a 20-6 score.

Whether or not the team was successful, it still would have been a winning season for it showed the determination of the true Michaelman spirit.

The 1966 Interclass Football season opened with the seniors taking a quick lead. In their first two games they defeated the sophomores and the freshmen by lopsided scores. These victories established the seniors as the team to beat, but the juniors had ideas of their own. In their first clash of the year, the class of '68 upset the seniors 6-0.

The regularly scheduled rematch between the two teams set the stage for a post season playoff game. In the second game the seniors edged the juniors 13-12 and earned a tie for first place. The post season championship game saw the seniors roll to an easy 26-0 rout of their junior counterparts and gain the league championship.

All of the teams played a hard season. The frosh, although the best they could manage was a tie with the sophs, showed much promise for the next three seasons. The only bright spot in the dismal sophomore season was a victory at the expense of the freshmen.

Interclass Football fans saw a most exciting season on the hilltop with the championship not being determined until the post season playoff.

For the second time in three years the Purple Knights were invited to the NCAA Regional tournaments. The team opened the playoffs with a 70-61 defeat of Northeastern, New England's supposedly number one team. The following evening the Knights found themselves pitted against Assumption for the Regional championship. They availed themselves of the opportunity to avenge an early season loss to the Greyhounds by defeating them 77-63.

Long Island University was now the only hurdle between the Knights and a trip to Evansville for the National NCAA finals. After leading for most of the game, the Knights' shooting hand went cold and the LIU Blackbirds were able to squeak out a last minute win, 72-64.

Tournament MVP, Dick Falkenbush, accepts winners' trophy with Coach Markey.

The Purple Knights opened the 1966-1967 basketball season with a decisive 95-70 victory over St. Lawrence. The team took its first of seven excursions over the 100 point mark by defeating Norwich 103-90 as they prepped for the important Assumption game that resulted in the first Purple Knights' defeat by a slim two point margin, 78-76. The Markeymen then won the next two games and were ready for the Christmas tournament at Central Connecticut.

The tournament found the St. Michael's squad more than eager. They handily defeated their first two opponents, Wesleyan and St. Anselm's, by scores of 86-78 and 86-76, respectively. The Knights met a strong Central Connecticut five in the final game, but they were able to defeat them 84-83 in overtime and bring their season record to an impressive 7 wins and 1 loss.

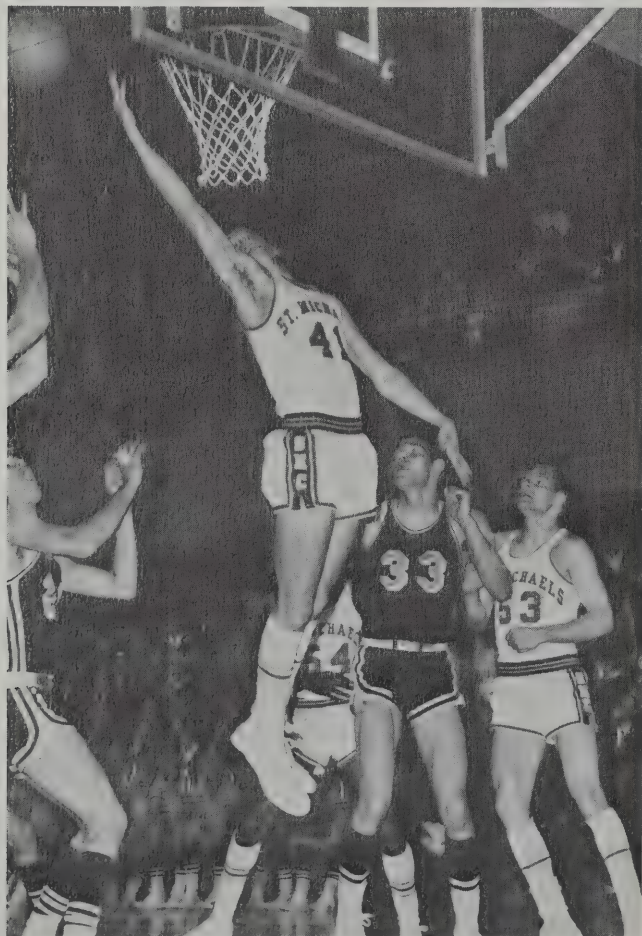

Returning to season play, the team suffered a defeat at the hands of Merrimack 101-97. They bounced back, however, and won the next five straight games. Central Connecticut broke the skein by defeating a hard fighting Knight squad 109-96 in overtime. This was the last game the team was to lose in regular season play. The Knights stood at an impressive 12 wins and 3 losses. This however, was not nearly good enough for the Knights. Just a week after the overtime loss to Central Connecticut, the team found itself in a double overtime battle with highly rated Buffalo University. This time the "bound and determined Knights" took a two point decision, 93-91 for their thirteenth victory.

After rolling over St. Anselm's and Colby, the Mark-eymen traveled to the Roy L. Patrick Gymnasium at the University of Vermont. The Catamounts proved no match for the powerful St. Michael's team in their 96-78 loss to the Hilltoppers. Two games interrupted the time period between that game and the next meeting of the "Saints" and the "Cats". With an eye toward the Vermont game, the Knights defeated Stonehill 106-96 and so soared over the 100 mark for the fifth time. The team then easily defeated LeMoyne 85-69. They were now ready for their second clash with the UVM contingent. A Burlington Memorial Auditorium capacity crowd watched as the Purple Knights proved they were truly Vermont State Champions in a 95-70 defeat of the Green and Gold. This marked the 13th consecutive year that Purple Knight teams have either won or shared the Green Mountain State title.

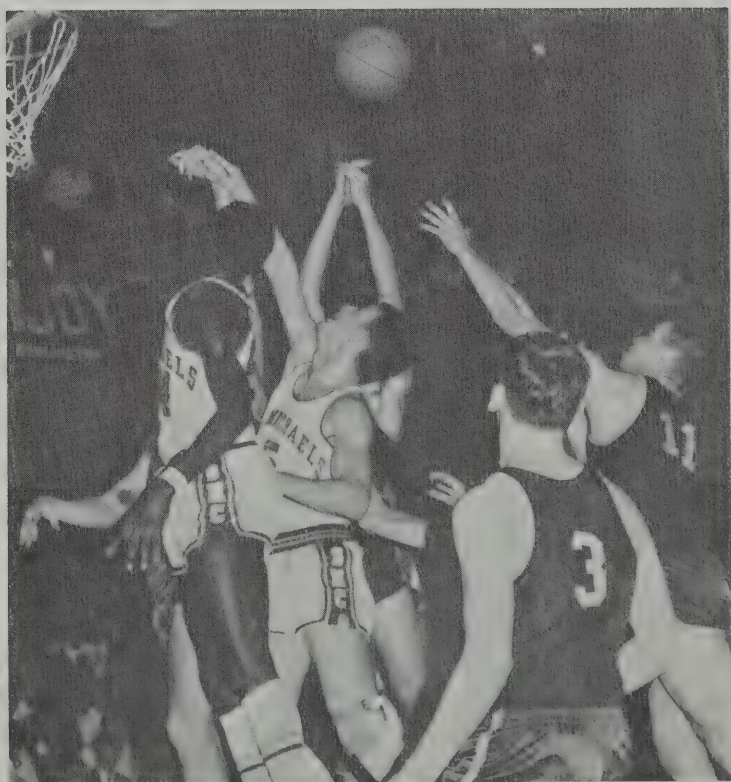

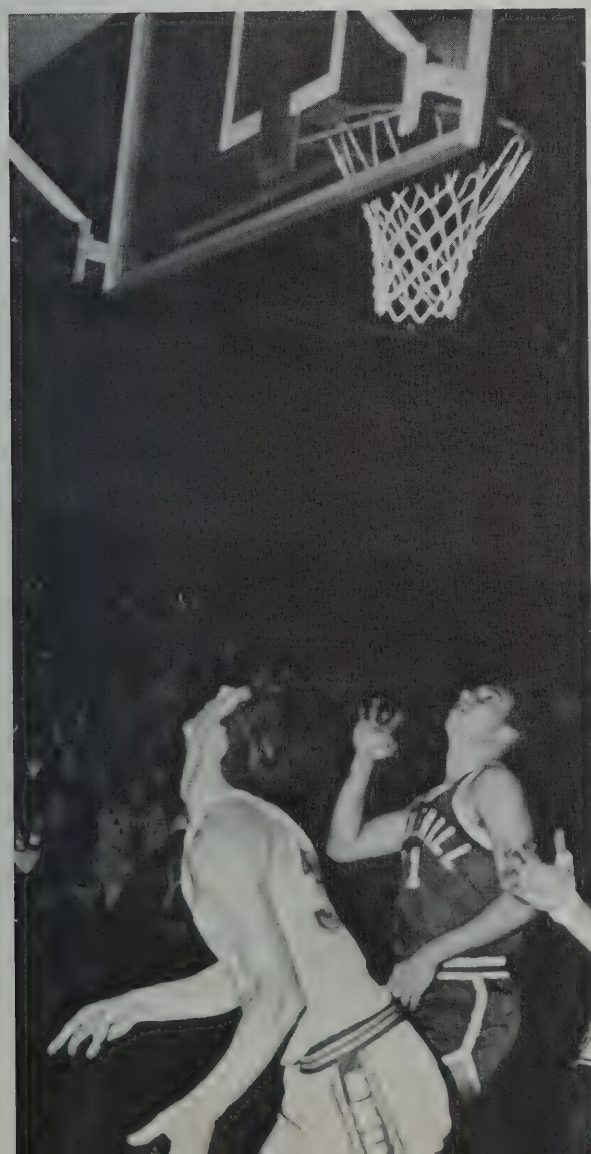

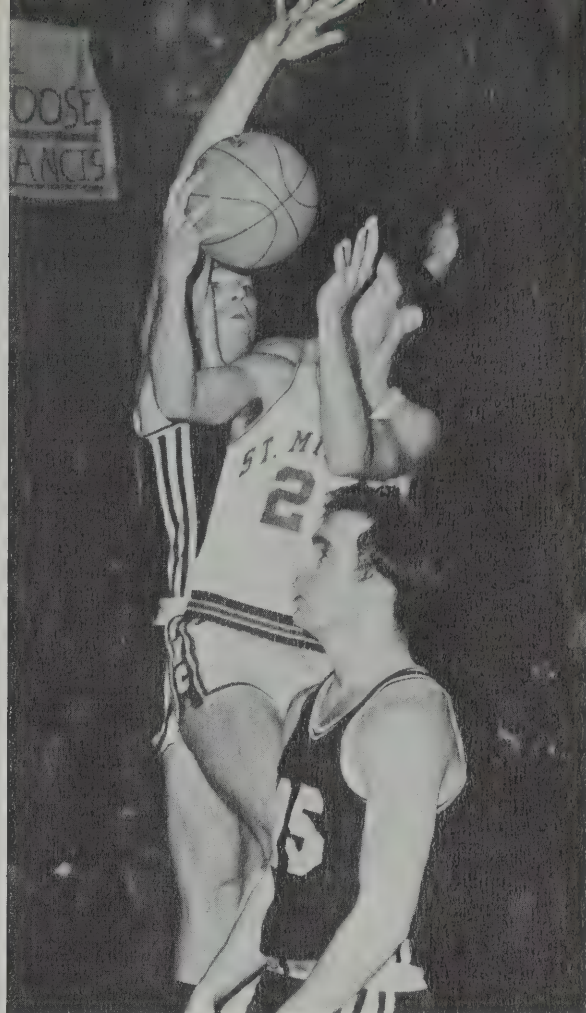

The Knights record now stood at 19 and 3 with two regularly scheduled games to play. On a Saturday night, Hartwick College moved into the Auditorium to prove their worth and secure a berth in the New York NCAA Regionals. During the pre-game warm-ups however, Ralph Coleman shattered the backboard in an attempted two handed dunk. The game was played the following afternoon at Rice High School. This time the Knights shattered the Hartwick club and their hopes for a Regional bid as leading scorer Dick Falkenbush set a new St. Michael's scoring record of 51 points in a 112-100 win. The Knights then defeated Clarkson as they hit triple digits for the seventh time by a 109-87 score. This left the club with a 21 and 3 record to carry into the NCAA Regional tournaments.

Throughout the season, the Purple Knights enjoyed a well-balanced scoring attack. Five men scored in double figures with Dick Falkenbush leading with a 24.0 points per game average. Tom McKenna followed with a 16.4 average. Joyce, Stryhas, and Coleman scored at 10.9, 10.9, and 10.1 clips respectively. Dave Gleason followed with a 9.9 average. Dick Falkenbush became the second highest scoring Knight in history with a career total of 1431 points. This well-balanced scoring gave the team an average of 91.5 points per game; the highest team average in St. Michael's history.

In addition to setting many new team marks, individual Knights shared in post-season honors. Bruce Stryhas, Dick Falkenbush, Ralph Coleman, and Tom McKenna were named to the Vermont "All-State" teams.

Record-breaking Dick Falkenbush piled up the most laurels as he was named to six ECAC weekly "All Star" teams, voted the NCAA Regional tournament's MVP, selected for the "All-New England" team, and was voted Vermont's "Athlete of the Month". Bruce Stryhas, along with Falkenbush, was named to the NCAA Regional and "All-State" teams. Another post-season award was bestowed on the Knights when coach Ed Markey was named "New England Coach of the Year" for the second time in three years.

One of the keys to a successful season in any sport is the leadership provided by the returning veterans. Their experience and ability to keep the game under control at all times is a vital necessity. This year, high-scoring captain Dick Falkenbush and spark plugs Bruce Stryhas and Bob Kryger provided that leadership. These seniors instilled a winning spirit and a sense of pride in the underclassmen who will continue to carry-on the winning tradition of St. Michael's.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The 1966-1967 SMC Squires ended the season with a win over Plattsburgh State College to halt a six game losing streak and finish with a record of 8 wins and 6 losses.

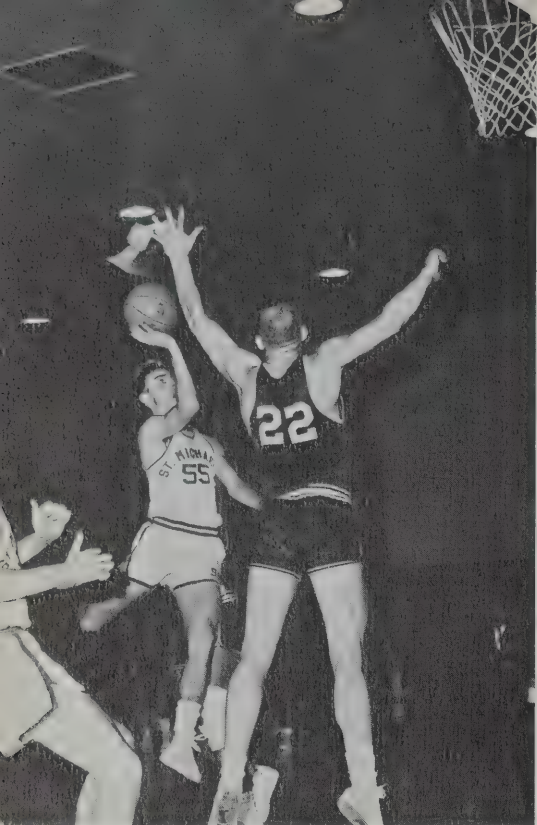

The 8-6 record was much better than it looks. All of the six losses came at the hands of much taller teams. Three of the losses were to Dartmouth and two (one in four overtimes) to the Vermont Kittens. Handicapped by a lack of height, the Squires surprised everyone by winning their first seven games. These victories came at the expense of Johnson and Wales, Middlebury, Norwich, Plattsburgh and a much taller Champlain College team.

John Russell at 19.1, Pete Cragen with 18.1, and Jay Cody at 17.8 points per game are excellent varsity prospects and three of the highest scoring freshmen in several years on the hilltop. Their all-round steady play and leadership provided the spark for a winning year. Pete Cragen further distinguished himself by being a "bull" in the rebound department and pulling in 21.8 stray shots per game. The hustle of Perry Gorman, Tony Rosinski, Rick Chesney, and Tim Regan added depth and spirit to the winning club.

INTERHOUSE BASKETBALL

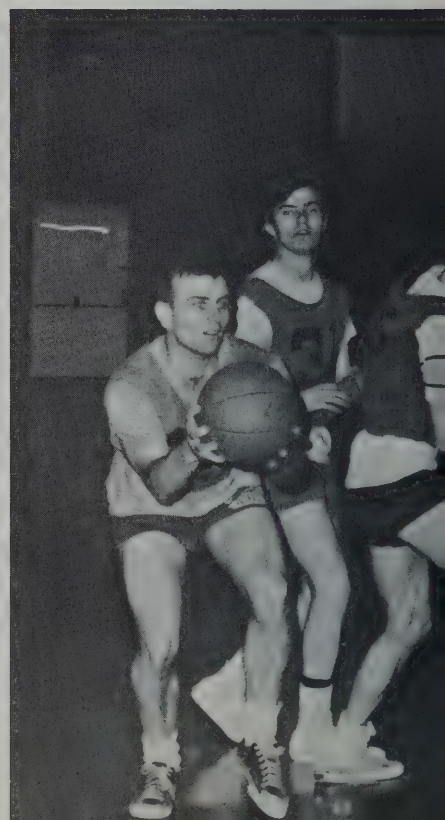

SMC

With the advent of the House system on the hilltop, an additional basketball league was formed to inspire a sense of competition among the ten Houses.

Each House was well represented on the court and competition was fairly even as is evidenced by the final league standings. Iota House of the "Fort 800" dormitory walked away with the league crown by achieving an unblemished 9-0 season. Omega House posed the only threat to Iota but they could not overcome the powerful Fort five. The rest of the league was evenly matched and produced some very exciting games.

The Iota team was a smoothly operating outfit sparked by the shooting and fine ball handling of Jim Cerasoli, Phil Doherty, Pete Tarrant, Ken Juall, and Paul Smith.

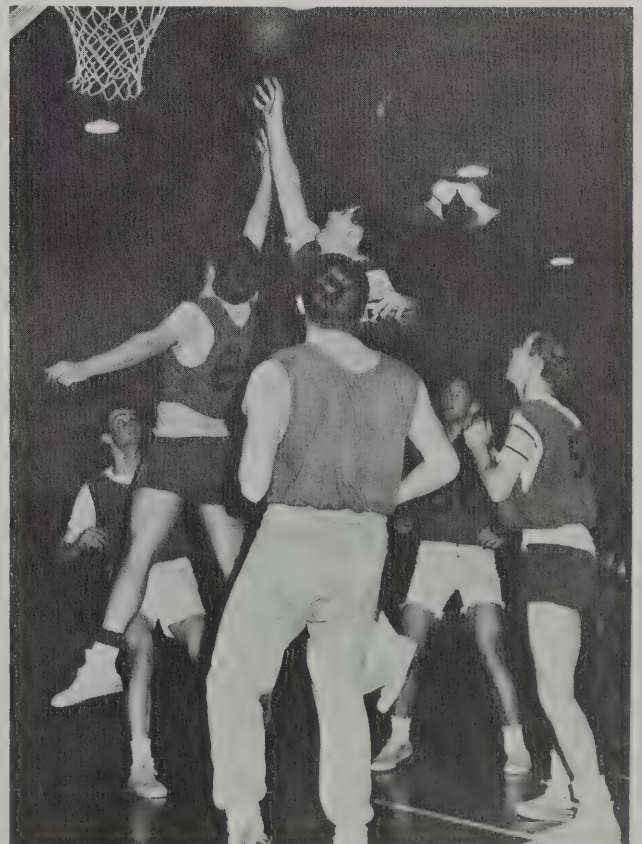

As the House system expands many rivalries will rise, not only in basketball but in other sports still on the Inter-Class level.

SUNDAY LEAGUE

SMC

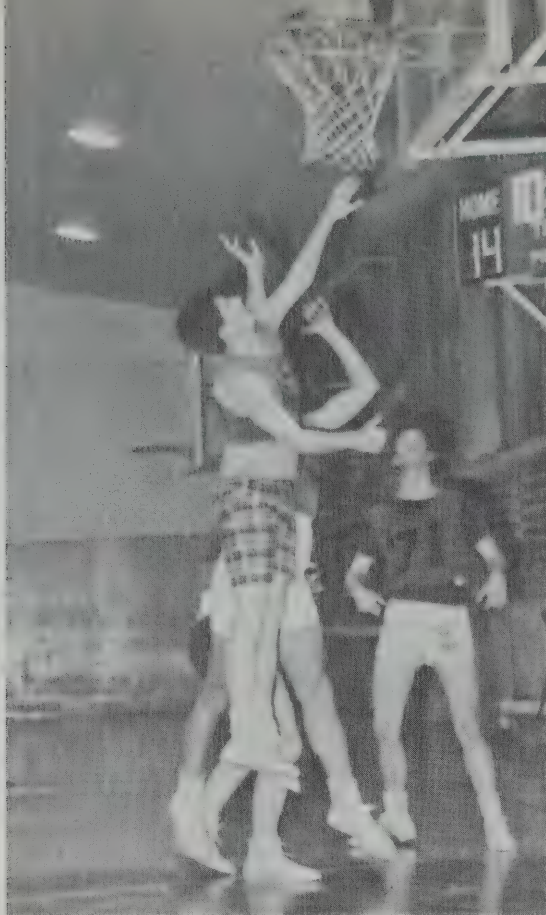

In its four years of existence the Sunday League Basketball Tournament has proved to be one of the most popular activities on the hilltop. This year the double elimination tourney started with 35 teams and close to 300 players.

The Gobblers, a team "fortified" with seniors from Ethan Allen 800, were the eventual champions. They eliminated the Ball-Handlers in the final game of the season to give the Ethan Allen dorm a complete domination of this year's intramural basketball program.

The Gobblers showed their domination of the tourney by placing four men on the All-Star team. These men are Jim Cerasoli, Pete Tarrant, Phil Doherty, and Dick Wenzel. Gary Hand, a sophomore, was the fifth man to make the select group.

This year the interclass basketball league was operated in a considerably different fashion than in past seasons. The 1967 edition was conducted on a double elimination basis. The season opened with the seniors gaining an expected victory over the hapless juniors in a tightly contested game, 52-51. This marked the 15th consecutive win for the seniors over a two year span. The same evening saw the freshman contingent easily defeated 72-35 by the sophomores. These two games were to be the barometer for the tournament.

The surprise of the season occurred when the sophs and seniors met for the first time. The sophomore five stopped a high-flying senior troupe 68-59. The juniors and freshmen were soon eliminated and the stage was set for another meeting of the sophs and seniors. The seniors returned to their winning ways and defeated the second year men by 15 points, 55-40. The two teams were now even. The championship game found the seniors defeating their opponents by a score of 57-48 and clinching the interclass championship for the second consecutive year.

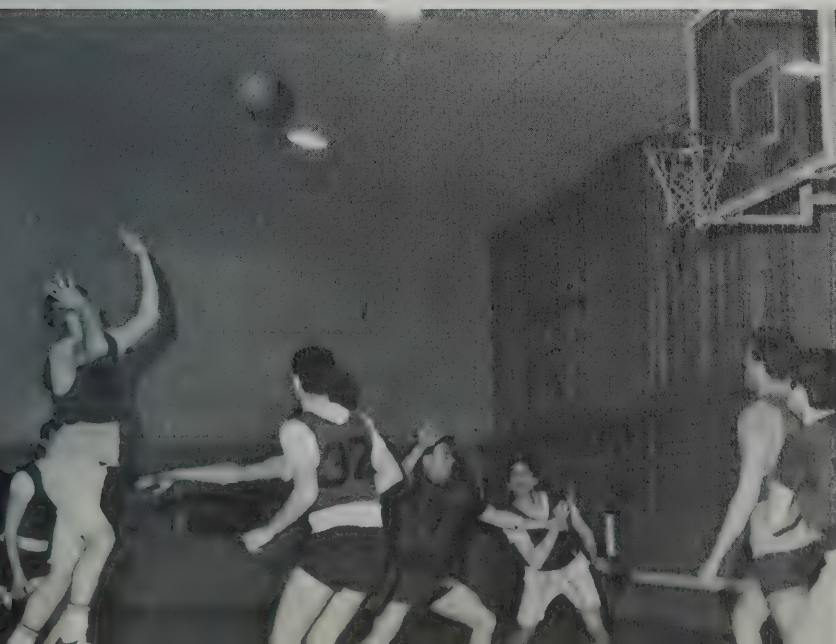

Coach Bob Kryger of the senior team remains calm as his charges go on to their second straight championship.

VARSITY SKI TEAM

SMC

In three years of varsity competition for St. Michael's Captain Dave Irish has led the ski team to new heights.

Coach Reudi Wyrsh

World-wide skier, and assistant instructor at Bolton Valley, Reudi Wyrsh coached the St. Michael's College Ski Team this year. A former member of the Swiss National Ski Team, and ski coach for Great Britain in the 1964 Olympics, he guided the Knights through five competitions. Consistently placing in the upper half of competition, the team achieved a seventy percent win score.

The first meet of the season was the St. Michael's International Ski Meet at Bolton Valley. This marked the first time in many years that St. Michael's has hosted a ski meet. The Knights took top billing with Dave Irish placing first in the Slalom and second in the Giant Slalom. At the Eastern Intermediate and Inter-Collegiate Ski Championship, held at Norwich, St. Michael's performed exceedingly well and earned a place in a stiffer competitive class. Other competitions were the New England College Ski Meet at Henniker, N.H. and meets at Syracuse and Paul Smith's College in New York.

The most outstanding skier was Dave Irish, performing as a Class A competitor. Also in the Alpine competition were Steve Reynes, Bill Wilson, Larry Suter, and Tom Kelley. In Nordic Cross Country was Bob Luschenat; while Mike Storlazzi, Dave Irish, and Bill Wilson performed in the Nordic Cross Country and Jumping. Good upcoming freshmen should add to the depth of the team for next year's stiffer competition.

Knight skiers get ready for the big test on the slopes.

Weather, the eternal demise of all Michaelmen, left its bitter effects on this year's baseball team. Due to constant rain and some snow, the Knights were unable to practice outside until three days before their first game.

This year's edition of the Knights was also hurt by the conspicuous absence of experienced seniors. This lack of experience, bad breaks, and poor weather sum up a gloomy and winless season for Coach Markey's charges. Though the Knights had many bad breaks and costly errors they displayed the great Michaelman spirit and were always in there fighting. With the exception of two games, the Knights had chances to pull ahead but could not seem to come up with the big play. Many defensive mistakes and a poor offensive attack somehow could not combine for a winning season.

Next year's edition of the diamondmen should be an improved and an experienced team.

VARSITY GOLF

Brian Murphy

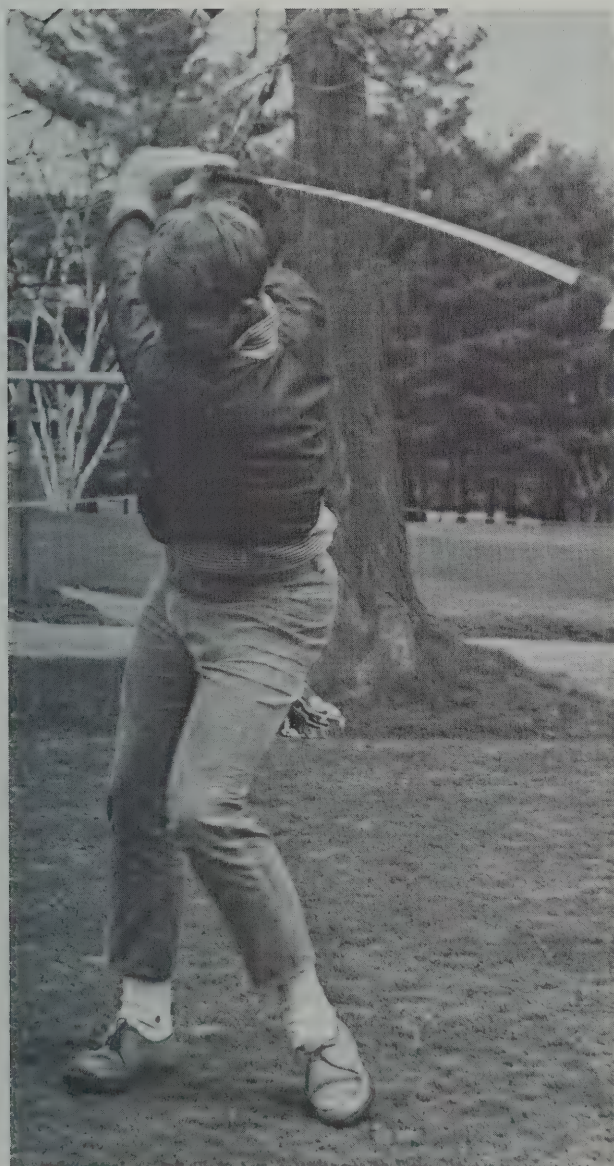

Dick Falkenbush

"Rebuilding but not retreating" is the best way to classify the 1967 Golfing Knights. Versatile Dick Falkenbush was the only veteran senior and the most consistent man on the team. Underclassmen Brian Murphy, Dick Sorenson, Bill Carlton, Kevin Deary, and Dick Navin gained much experience which will be valuable to the team next season.

Poor weather hampered the Knights as they prepared for five dual meets as well as the state and New England competition. In the dual meets the linksmen defeated Plattsburg and Clarkson, but suffered early defeats at the hands of University of Vermont, St. Lawrence, and Norwich. Later the Knights avenged the loss to the Norwich Cadets by defeating them in the state meet.

INTERCLASS
SOFTBALL

SMC

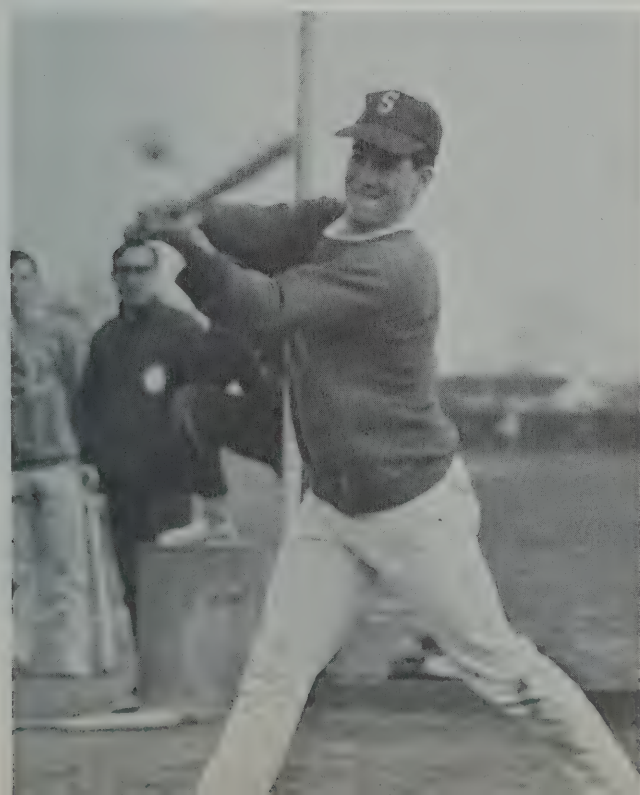

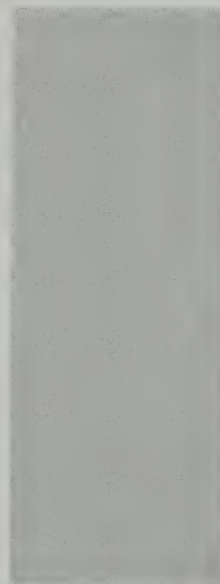

Senior Bill Powers pitched a strong game to open the 1967 softball season on the hilltop by beating the juniors 7-5, however, the third-year-men were able to rebound and win their next seven games. By doing this they captured the league crown for the second year in a row. Leading the juniors to the championship were Tom McKenna, Bob Joyce, Dave Gleason, "Lance" Larson and "Fugi" Antonageli.

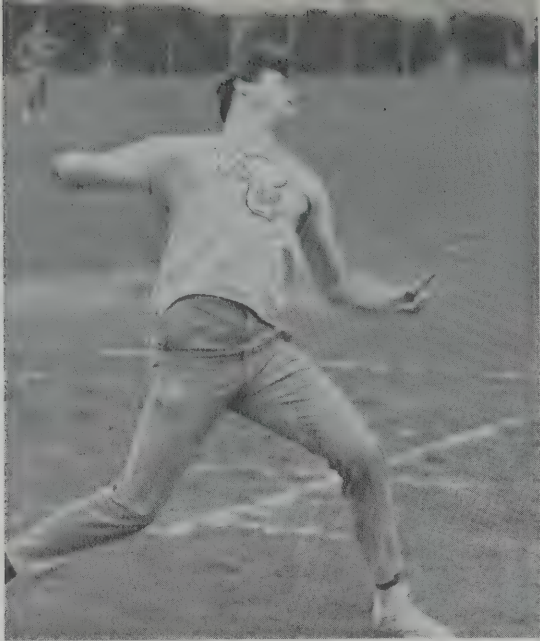

The senior cause suffered most from the great amount of postponed games because they were re-scheduled around the time of comprehensive exams. For this reason they often did not have a full team on hand but did muster enough spirit and strength to secure the runner-up spot in the final standings.

The completion of the entire schedule was impossible due to the famous Vermont Spring which never materialized. The freshman contingent was the only one to complete its schedule.

Joe Prignano won the Football Kick three of four years.

The Class of 1967 this year continued its domination of the annual Interclass Track and Field day. As freshmen the class placed second and then reigned as champions for the next three years. The power of the team was found in the sprints where Gene Belsole, John Carbonneau, and Dave Irish combined to place 1-2 for four straight years. These same three men, along with Jim Phalen, made up the '67 relay team that was never defeated. Joe Prignano, in the football kick, and Dick Falkenbush, in the baseball and football throws, were also perennial winners.

"All-American" Dick Falkenbush was the high point man this year as he gained two firsts and one second place.

Gene Belsole finishes the last leg for the undefeated senior relay team.

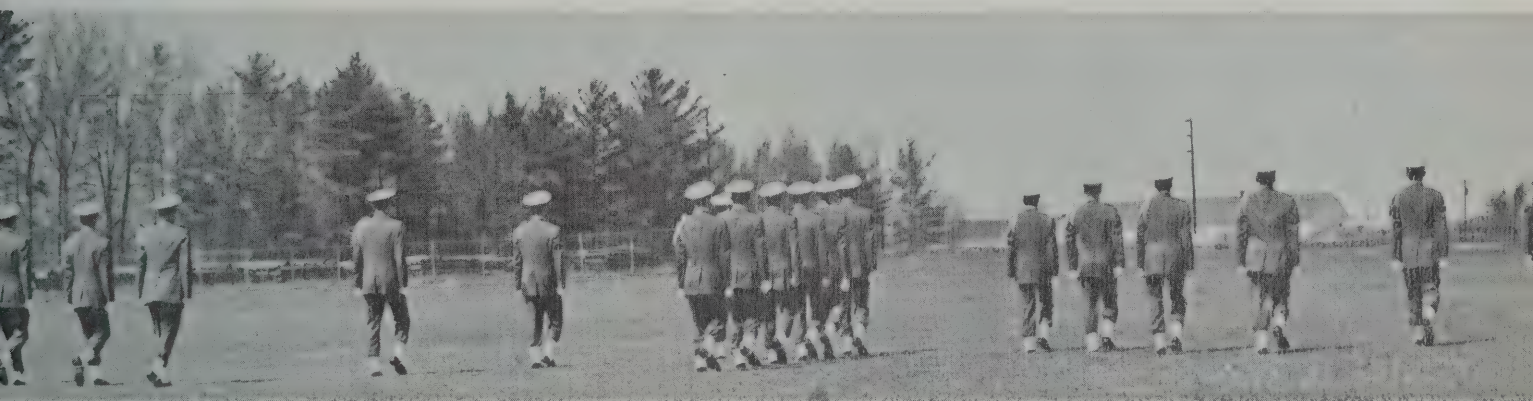

The highlight of each Parents' Weekend is the performance of the Drill Team at Final Review.

UNARMED
DRILL TEAM

SMC

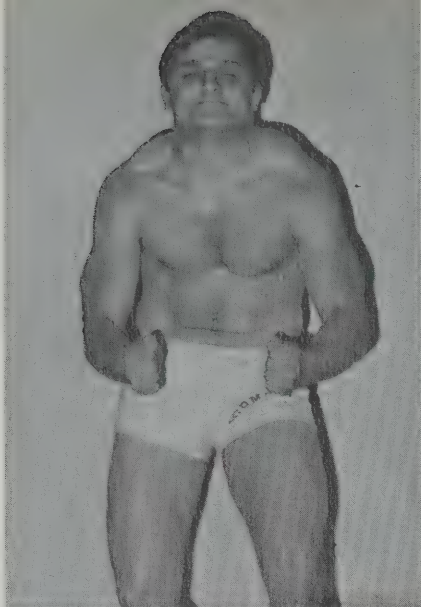

Under the direction of Cadet Lt. Col. Daniel Durkin, the "Marching Saints" continued their domination of unarmed drill competition. With over 300 hours of practice behind them, the team traveled to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. to represent Vermont and to participate in the National Drill Championships.

The national competition is not divided into armed and unarmed classifications. This factor put the Saints at a disadvantage when they were in competition, but it did not dampen the Knights' spirits. In a field of over 50 teams the Michaelmen placed 12th. In doing this they placed far ahead of all other unarmed teams to be judged as "National Unarmed Champions" for the second year in a row. In the meet the team defeated traditional rival Norwich University, an armed team from a military college.

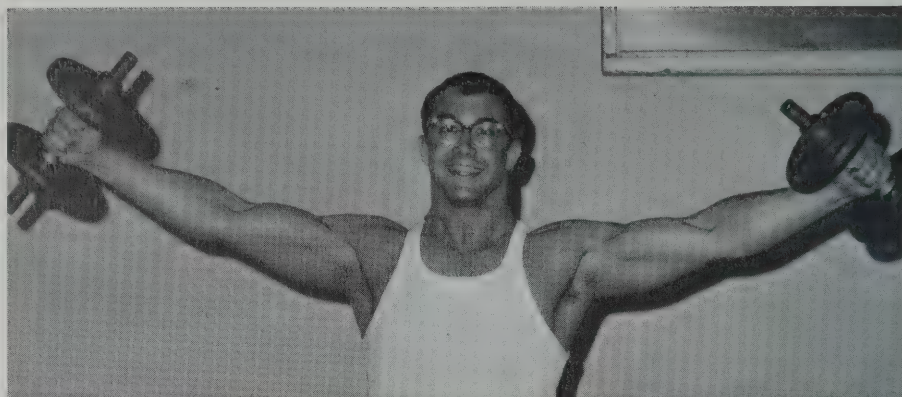

On the weekend of April 27-29 the "Marching Saints" traveled to New York City for the Manhattan College Invitational Meet and the Region One Championship. Here the Knights strengthened their championship tradition by making a clean sweep and "marching" away with the three trophies in Basic drill, Trick drill, and Over-All. It is the 11th year in a row that the "Marching Saints" have won the Trick drill competition.

The cadets under the guidance of Commander Durkin deserve much credit for their accomplishments. It takes many hours of sacrifice and hard work to produce a team which continues to perform on the championship level.

WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB

"I'm just checking the sprinkler system."

The purpose of the St. Michael's College Weightlifting Club is to provide students with an opportunity to exercise on their own and keep in shape during the "off-season." Any student is welcome to join the organization and may lift at any time. Modest dues are assessed of each member and this money is used to purchase additional equipment as well as replacing that which is old and not usable.

The club does not hold formal meetings, but during the year several intra-club meets are held.

Bernie Cieplecki, '57 was the main speaker.

Everybody had plenty of good laughs.

BLOCK "M" DINNER

The St. Michael's College Block 'M' dinner is held annually by the athletic department for those students who have participated in the Intercollegiate program at varsity and freshman levels. The Block 'M' is awarded to varsity athletes for their extracurricular activity in athletics.

At the banquet this year there were, in addition to the Block 'M' and certificate awards, several special presentations. Senior Bob Kryger was presented the "Victor V. LeMieux Award" for outstanding contributions and loyalty to the team cause. Coach Ed Markey was presented the UPI award for New England Coach of the Year, and the Rev. Ralph Linnehan was awarded a lifetime membership in the Basketball Hall of Fame.

In the words of "Doc" Jacobs; "You who have earned the Block 'M' should wear it with pride and with a feeling of accomplishment. Wear it with dignity as it is the mark of a Gentleman, a Competitor, and a Michaelman."

Bob Kryger "accepts" the "Victor Lemieux" award.

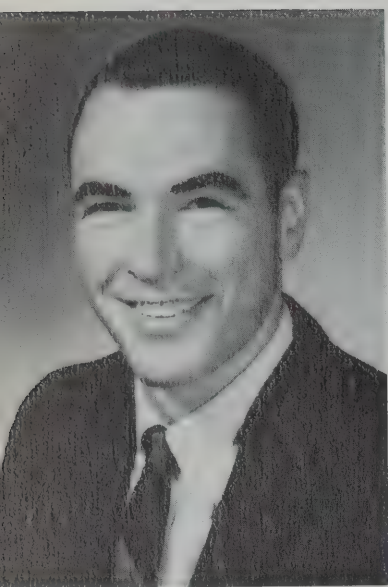

Frosh Tim Regan received the "Most Improved" award from "Doc" Jacobs.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The publication of the college's annual is a day looked forward to throughout the year by all students. This book serves as a record of student life and creates a certain nostalgic atmosphere for the Michael-Life of the past.

1966-'67 has been a year of many changes—administrative policies, student activity, campus government, and even the physical appearance of the college has undergone various transitions. We have, in a sense, seen "the new St. Michael's."

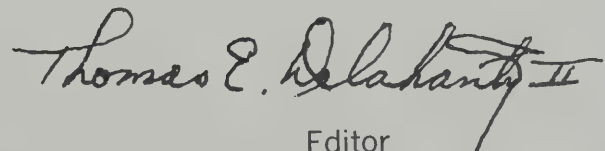

It takes many hours of thought and work to produce this album of life at St. Michael's. There are many people who have worked hard to make this book stand out among those of the past. I want to thank the whole SHIELD staff for their co-operation, especially, John Meehan and Rich McCabe for their extra special efforts. Dick Oettinger, Dick Gadue, and "Kaz" Astumi deserve credit for the time and co-operation they gave to supply the yearbook with many fine pictures.

My sincere appreciation is also extended to Mr. Don Fillion of "The Burlington Free Press" who provided us with many of the excellent sports pictures contained in that section. I also want to thank Mr. E. J. Kirk, who took the senior portraits, and Father Leon Paulin for the use of his photographic facilities.

Finally I want to thank two men who have been invaluable to us this year, Mr. Leo O'Connor and Mr. Stan Sankowski. Mr. O'Connor, our moderator, has stood by us through thick and thin, and has consistently catered to our special requests. Mr. Sankowski, representative from the American Yearbook Company, has offered us much advice and co-operation throughout the year. Thanks men for your help!

It is almost impossible to name all those who have contributed to the book. I offer my sincere apology to anyone whom I have neglected to thank. However, I must extend my thanks to every-one who in any manner helped to put this book together. THANK YOU!

Sincerely,
